This Is Us will not air a new season 4 episode on NBC on Tuesday. Fans are devastated to have to wait to watch A Hell of a Week: Part Three. This Is Us will return with episode 13 on February 11, 2020. This Is Us season 4 has been back for three weeks, and we're finally getting back to the rhythm of things - or so we think. Now, NBC's hit drama show is taking another quick break, which means there won't be a new episode this week. Last Tuesday, minutes after ending its latest episode, This Is Us shared the touching announcement on Twitter, immediately alarming fans. This content is imported from Twitter. And while viewers now have less than a week to go, the wait hasn't gotten any easier. Why do we have to wait another week 🙄🙄🙄, commented one fan on Instagram. We'll be reunited before you know it. 🙄 the program's official Instagram account responded. But seriously, why isn't this us season 4 tonight? One word: Politics.President Donald Trump will deliver his third official State of the Union address on Tuesday, February 4, at 9:.m. ET. While Fans of This Is Us are not thrilled about the premature outage, it is important to note that SOTU is being delivered a week later than originally planned because of a partial government shutdown. It's been 38 days since Killed his brother, the ice truck killer. Debra's living with him and Doakes follows him wherever he goes, so he hasn't killed anyone since. When 13 dismembered bodies are found in Bay Harbor, the Miami Miami subway department begins a massive manhunt for a man who the media calls the Bay Harbor Butcher. Dexter is very involved in the case, considering the bodies found were his. He dislikes the bay harbor butcher name and prefers The Black Defender who some call him after it is revealed that the butcher only goes after criminals who have escaped the law. Dexter survives by framing Sergeant Doakes for the murders. Dexter's relationships deepen. He learns that his father did not die of heart disease, but that he committed suicide after getting into Dexter working with one of his deaths. Dexter is devastated by this revelation, but ends up having a closer relationship with Debra, who lives with him for several months because she can't sleep alone after discovering that The Ice Truck Killer was her boyfriend. Rita finds out something's going on with Dexter and takes drugs. She believes he is a heroin addict and asks him to go to a 12-step program. In the show, he meets Lila, who takes him out for coffee. She seems to be able to actually see him and it scares him, so he doesn't want to come back. Dexter and Rita's relationship gets even more complicated when Rita's mother comes to stay with Rita and tells her that Dexter is hiding something. Dexter refuses to go back to NA, so Rita ends up with him. Dexter begins dating Lila when he discovers that she can see what a monster he is, although she doesn't know he's a killer, and she doesn't care. Dexter begins to realize, though, that she is very crazy and Rita seems to need him. It's a surprise to him that he really cares about Rita and the kids. Dexter ends up with Lila. Lila begins dating Angel, using him to get to Dexter. She also breaks into Rita's house, and finally kidnaps Astor and Cody and takes them to her apartment. Dexter finds them there and Lila locks him and the children in his house and fires in place. They narrowly escape and then Dexter finds her and kills her. While watching the 12-step show, Dexter decides he will no longer give in to the desires to kill. He discovers that his birth mother was working with Harry as an informant, and that's what killed her. One of the men who killed her is in jail, one dead, and the other in the witness protection program. Dexter goes after what's in protection and beats him, but resists the urge to kill him. Later, the man finds him when Lila gives him the address. They fight, but the man runs away. Dexter tracks him to his cabin and decides he is who he is, so he kills him. Debra starts dating a guy from her gym, but it takes a long time to trust him. Even after trusting him, she realizes she has feelings for Special Agent Lundy, who was brought into the Bay Harbor Butcher's case. They start dating, despite the age difference, and Debra is devastated when the case is closed and Lundy has to leave. James Doakes continues to follow Dexter, trying to find out his he follows him to the NA meeting and believes he is a heroin addict, but he soon discovers that this is not true. He finds Dexter at the cabin and discovers that he is the Bay Harbor Butcher. They fight and Dexter locks him in the cabin. After many conversations with Doakes, Dexter decides to turn himself in, which will be easier for Rita and Deb in the long run, but at the last second, he decides to continue with his plan to frame Doakes as the butcher. While with Dexter, Debra gets a call saying they're approaching the butcher. Dexter runs to the cabin, but the police are already there and the cabin is on fire. He later adds that Lila had used her GPS to get to the cabin. Once there, Doakes told her dexter was the Bay Harbor Butcher. She turned on the propane and lit the gas stove, exploding Doakes to get close to Dexter. Although Lieutenant LaGuerta does not believe it, Sergeant Doakes is officially listed as the Bay Harbor Butcher and is believed to be a suicide. Dexter is free to take care of his business as usual. Before he went to NA, Dexter has trouble killing his victims. Paul is killed in a prison fight and Dexter doesn't understand Rita's guilt. Dexter says goodbye to his brother, The Ice Truck Killer, throwing the doll's head he had left for Dexter in the water. Officer Pascal gets LaGuerta's job, but LaGuerta manages to fire her causing personal relationship problems when she secretly sleeps with Pascal's fiancé. Dexter kills a Bay Harbor Butcher impersonator. A letter arrives from Nicky indicating that he's not doing well in Vietnam—he's been disciplined, and writes troubling phrases like I know I'm not leaving this place alive—and then Jack has to go find him. I just need to be where he is, even if I can't get to him, he tells the doctor. Even if I can't do anything for him, I just need to be there. He's my little brother. It's my job to take care of him. 5. Jack had a long history of heart problems before his sudden death. As we all know painfully well so far, it wasn't the fire that killed Jack directly, but a heart attack caused by smoke inhalation. And apparently, there were warning signs. Jack has had aquicardia (an abnormally rapid heart rate) since his childhood, and was severe enough to of the draft. Jack minimizes the condition as harmless when he decides to enlist, but but doctor is clearly concerned. Jack's father wasn't always a monster. NBC This was a pleasant surprise because Stanley Pearson has been a very notable villain for most of the show. On the one hand, this episode offered much more painful details of how abusive hie was to his wife and children, making it clear that his violence is a big part of why Jack is so protective of Nicky. There is also a brutal scene in which Marilyn, the mother of Jack and Nicky, greeted the postman with a very visible bruise over his eye. He wasn't always like that, Marilyn tells her children, after they both intervened to physically protect her from Stanley. And it's true: in a flashback to the day Nicky was born, Stanley is sweet and supportive, offering fatherly advice to Jack in the waiting room. The appearance of Stanley's own father, bottle in hand, gives him to understand some of his demons—yet you have to wonder what happened in the next two decades to turn him into such a horrible man. I think we're going to have to wait and find out! This content is created and maintained by third parties and imported into this page to help users provide their email addresses.
